IMPEACH F.D.R.

Mr. C. Leon de Aryan, etc.
Dear friend:

Thank you for your letter of September 16th. The newspapers did not correctly report my recent speech on the war situation; that is, they omitted important paragraphs which should have been printed in order to give the public a fair statement of my stand in opposition to going into war. I enclose a complete copy of the speech, which I hope is in line with your views on the subject.

Cordially yours,
ARTHUR CAPPER.

Franklin I, Rex or Vice-Roy ?

Senator Arthur Capper,
Dear Sir:

Have received your letter of Sept. 22, regarding your speech about your support of the President's action in his order to shoot on sight, as well as the complete text of your speech on the subject.

In your accompanying letter you claim that a wrong impression was given about your stand in the matter because the newspapers ommitted important paragraphs which would give the public a fair statement of your stand in opposition to going into war.

After reading your complete speech I cannot find that the newspapers gave any sort of wrong impression, in fact I notice that they fairly stated your stand, as you have stated it yourself.

The trouble with you seems to be that you are "another politician" trying to carry water on both shoulders and as soon as you found out how the public reacted to your statement, you are attempting to deny the substance of your own words: "The President having acted, the Congress of the United States and the people of the United States must and will support that action. There is no other course of action open to us."

If you were not "another politician", but a man of responsibility, as was George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and the other Founders of the republic, you would look up the Constitution and your oath of office and you would apply Sec. 4 of Article 2, by setting the machinery in motion, demanding that the House impeach the President for having wilfully precipitated a war through the occupation of Iceland, a country situated in the war zone, occupied by one of the belligerents, without consent of congress. He violated Article 2, Section 2, when he made a treaty with Iceland and occupied that territory without consent of two-thirds of the Senate.

By passing the buck that "The President having acted, the Congress of the United States, and the people of the United States MUST and will support that action", you merely reveal yourself as a follower of that subversive policy of MUST knuckle under to the dictator in the White House, even there where he plainly violates the Constitution he has "solemnly" sworn to "execute . . . preserve, protect and defend . . "

My dear Senator, you have placed yourself in the unfortunate position of those men who have no respect for the Constitution and who surrender to wrong doing instead of calling to account the wrong doer. If the Constitution means nothing to you and instead of the true oath to it, you have perchance taken an oath of fealty to Franklin Delano Roosevelt, so that you and your kind MUST support his action AGAINST the United States and the Constitution, of course, you must, then preserve your personal loyalty to Franklin I, Rex, or Vice-Roy of His Majesty's government.

I am sincerely yours,
C. LEON de ARYAN.

"GENTILES ONLY"

UNITED STATES POST OFFICE
San Diego, California
October 1, 1941

Publisher, The Broom, etc.
San Diego, California.
My dear Sir:

It is reported that there is no clear line of distinction between the reading and advertising matter of your publication issued September 29, 1941.

Most of the advertisements in your publication are clearly blocked out so as not to be mistaken for reading matter; but there are others not so marked which might be considered either as reading matter or as advertisements. An example of the latter will be found on page one, the last item in colum two, headed: "San Diego Social Club".

Your attention is directed to the law requiring that all editorials, or reading matter for which money is paid must be marked "Advertisement". In the fuutre, it will be necessary for you to conform with this law which is quoted below for your benefit.

Section 537, Postal Laws and Regulations, paragraph two (2) reads, quote: "All editorial or other matter published in any such newspaper, magazine, or periodical for the publication of which money or other valuable consideration is paid, accepted, or promised shall be plainly marked "advertisement". Any editor or publisher printing editorial or other reading matter for which compensation is paid, accepted, or promised without so marking the same shall upon conviction in any court having jurisdiction be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

Yours very truly,
DON STEWART,
Postmaster.

White Folks "Tolerated"

Mr. Don M. Stewart,
Postmaster,
San Diego, California.
My dear Sir:

I received your letter of Oct. 1, concerning the reported lack of a clear line of distinction between the reading and advertising matter of our publication issued September 29, 1941.

If you will look at that issue at the mentioned example found on page one, the last item in column two, headed: "San Diego Social Club", you will see a very heavy line of demarkation between the preceding reading matter and the advertisement which is separated in the usual way as has been done in THE BROOM for the past eleven years without any complaint against a lack of distinction being registered.

However I appreciate your friendly warning and request that such matter be plainly labeled "advertisement" which I shall do in the next issue quite pointedly for our mutual protection, so that I may not be prosecuted and you not be charged with neglect of doing your duty in accordance with Section 537, Postal Laws and Regulations, paragraph two (2), quoted in your letter.

BUT—Do you realize that for eleven years of publication my method of placing classified advertisements at the foot of a column, separated by a heavy black line from the reading and editorial matter, was always recognized as sufficent distinction, till in the first issue of the 12th year of publication suddenly a rival newspaperman takes offense at a classified Advertisement which announces a formation of a Social Club for GENTILES ONLY.

It is remarkable that the B'Nai B'Rith for example can form clubs for Hebrews only but that white people are not permitted to so associate without some Britophile or B'Rithophile immediately discovering some obscure law to create a typical case of petty chicanery as is the nature of that outfit who imagine that they rule the world while we are living here on earth by their tolerance.

Thanking you for your friendly warning, so indicative of the time we are living in, I am most sincerely,
C. LEON de ARYAN.

President Roosevelt Is Right

For once we agree with President Roosevelt.

He called attention that in matters of Religion the same conditions prevail in Russia as in the U. S.

He cited the U. S. S. R. constitution to the effect that it guarantees religious liberty, as does the U. S. A. Constitution.

In Russia, if you take the constitution at its word and assert your religious beliefs your are finding out differently.

In America when you take the constitution at its word and refuse to register for military service, you also find out how much protection the constitution affords you.

Yes, the USSR under Stalin and the USA under Roosevelt are both alike: sister "democracies".

The President is right!

I AM A Peace Monger

(Over KGB, Wednesday Nite, 8:45)

The British Minister of Information, Brendon Bracken, has coined a new designation for the opponents of the war mongers, he calls us peace mongers and I am very proud to enlist in the service of the Prince of Peace, our Lord Jesus Christ and be counted among His loyal followers and obedient servants.

As I remember history, Jesus stated His mission as being to fulfill the Law and not break it. In fulfillment of the Law He gave His life. On the other hand history teaches us that it was Moses who went up Mount Sinai to bring back the tablets with the Ten Comandments, but when he found his people worshipping the Golden Calf, he broke the tablets as well as the Comandments and cut the heads off three thousand of his own people. Now I do not propose to break the Commandments and be counted among the followers of Moses, I challenge any man to show me where humanity has ever profited by breaking any of the Ten Commandments. I take my chances with the Prince of Peace even though the war mongers don't like that attitude. I don't apologize for standing with the Master. I have nothing to be ashamed of, or be afraid of. On the Day of Atonement, my conscience will be clear and I will not have to lament for having wilfully broken the divine order of life.

If you look in the radio Log of the two daily papers in San Diego at the hour of 8:45 tonite, you will not find my program listed. There is no mistake about it. I personally called up the proper persons and informed them of the time and the station. But, the peace monger's program is not listed.

That tells which way the wind is blowing.

NATURAL BEAUTY "SECRET"

ATLANTIC CITY,—Rosemary La Planche, Miss America of 1941, reveals her "beauty secret":

"Why, I just wash my face two or three times a day with soap and water and mother washes my hair once a week—that's all there is to it."

Blasphemy in Excelsis

From British War Relief Association

Specially-designed "V" Christmas cards were placed on sale this week by the British War Relief Assn. at its two stores in San Diego, the Thrift Shop at 927 E St., and the No. 2 shop, just opened at 1143 Fifth Ave.

The attractive card combines the theme of the Bethlehem star, with the ever-popular "V" for Victory" motif. The "V" seems to be looming out of a cloud background, with the famed star overhead. The entire design is done in blue and white. Much work of designing, as well as making the block print was done by Belle Baranceanu, noted local artist, with the assistance and cooperation of Miss Lotta D. Perry, art supervisor of the San Diego city schools, who was kind enough to give some of her spare time to the project; Cora Lee Wells and others. The work and much of the materials were donated.

On the inside cover is reproduced an original verse.

The proceeds from the sale of the cards will go for relief of the destitute and unfortunate in the bombed areas of Great Britain. In addition to the shops, the cards may be purchased from any member of the committee, or at the British War Relief Assn. headquarters, 1126 First National building, San Diego.

"V" — Vileness, Vice, Violence
Ve Vant Var

At least the Nazis are frank about it: they want none of Jesus Christ and have taken over the German Lutheran Church bag and baggage and told the pastors what they can teach of "Christianity" and when to shut up, or else. They put Pastor Martin Niemoeller into a concentration camp for asserting that Jesus Christ ranks Hitler. We are doing the same thing in the U. S. A. to those who say that the U. S. Constitution, Christ and the Ten Commandments rank above Congress and Roosevelt. 141 Americans are in jails for refusing to recognize the constitutionality of the draft against their religious convictions.

But the babe Jesus was crucified by instigation of the "V" plotters, after He grew up. The "V" is the ancient sign of the Kohanim. The modern "V" campaign is nothing new. It was conducted most viciously during the days of Jesus when the Kohanims plotted to overthrow the Romans as the Kohanim are plotting today again to overthrow ALL governments and substitute the "democracy" of their own brand. They have succeeded in Russia, in Britain and they had done it in France. They are fast manning our own ship of state with their own crew, while you and I pay the freight.

"V" plotters insisted that Jesus be murdered because He defied them by admonishing His followers to recognize the Caesar and pay him his due. And now the acme of blasphemy is reached by the hypocritical Anglophiles who have the effrontery of joining the "V" motif with the Star and Babe of Bethlehem.

Jesus never countenanced revolution or insurrection. He ordered Peter to sheath his sword when the authorities came to arrest the Master. He counseled against bloodshed. What has the "V" campaign done in Europe but the same thing it did in Jerusalem. When the Jews got rid of Jesus and revolted against Rome they were lined up, decimated, as Hitler is doing in Europe to the "V" plotters and aside from the bloodshed no good came of it. The Jews were dispersed, Rome went its own way, and now the "V"s are starting the horrid blood bath all over again on a world wide scale after having failed in their rehearsal in Palestine.

Declared a legal paper of general circulation for the County and City of San Diego, by Superior Court order, January 15, 1932.

What Are They Plotting To Do To Lindy ?

In the mail I received a copy of a letter which is being sent out to the "Brethern" commanding them to appear at a Lodge meeting to discuss the Jewish question raised by Lindbergh.

We have a Jewish "Bund" not only in this country, but all over the world. They command the attendance of their members. What are they plotting at those meetings?

Who financed the Nazis & who armed them? Hitler had no money.

Who created the bogey man of Europe to again involve that continent into a general shambles! And why did they set up Hitler and armed him? And after they succeeded to get a full fledged grievance going, why was all the gold shipped to America for safekeeping and BOUGHT and paid for with our taxmonies at a fancy price, while the gold subsequently was turned over to a private holding concern, the Federal Reserve Bank!

And is Henry Morgenthau not a member of B'Nai B'Rith where they do the planning?

And why did a hue and cry arise in America, and all over the world, to boycott the same Hitler, who had been set up as the bogey man of Europe for the distinct purpose of producing an issue to force America into war so that in the confusion and hysteria of the war "the Chosen People" may completely take over the government and the economic machinery of the U. S. A. as THEY are doing already. Are you blind?

Our country is the richest prize for this piratical expedition.

Senator Wheeler in San Diego

By C. Leon de Aryan

I knew that warmongers magazines, like LIFE and scurrilous rodents of the radio and the press, like Winchell, and perfidious politicians like President Roosevelt and Ickes and the rest of the Communist crowd, were smearing the peace mongers who stand for America First, but I never realized what a sweet man at heart U. S. Senator Burton K. Wheeler is till I saw him at the Ford Bowl in Balboa Park in San Diego.

When a man must stand up against those who sell out their country for the graft there is in collecting interest on the public debt; for the graft there is in building cantonments for a conscript army; for the graft there is in a huge hurry-up armament program with its waste and confusion; for the graft there is for politicians in handing out jobs and patronage after becoming yes-men for the warmongers administration; when we hear and read how a man dennounces the executive of a nation who is obsessed with the desire of going down in history as a "great man" and to achieve this conspires with the war makers and war profiteers to throw his own country into war, sacrifice the nation, its people, its wealth and its liberties under the constitution—one naturally expects to find a man of a pugnacious character, a bellicose fellow, hard boiled and inured to the finer feelings and considerations, a man who goes after his opponent bare handed and like Churchill, Winchell & Roosevelt, uses every artifice of language to evoke hatred. But how surprised was I to discover that an entirely different spirit impels the senior Senator from Montana when he crusades for Peace and the maintenance of constitutional government in America. His motive is not hate for Roosevelt, or Willkie, or Churchill or the Warburgs and the Morgans, his motive is LOVE of his own Americans, consideration for their wellbeing, their liberties and their future for which their forebears gave their lives and suffered agonies untold to wrest a new civilization from the wilderness in which they landed to escape the tyrannies and iniquities of the old world.

Senator Wheeler is not a destroyer, he is a builder, a builder of the natural America which, if permitted to follow the impulse that brought the millions of men and women who came here in the search of equity and human rights, would produce, improve upon and increase the sphere of spiritual force that has made this country the first nation on earth from the humanitarian evaluation of life.

It is not the spirit of the man who with a ruthless, armed fist drives others and regiments them against their will by treachery and chicanery, by bribery and force to follow him to war and murder, it is the spirit which Christ represented and which He called out in our own hearts when He gave His life that others may live. From the fount of this love for mankind and his own America, Senator Wheeler, of purely English Quaker descent, without hatred or bias, like a hen-mother defending her chicks against the birds of prey and the skunks who stalk about, stands up and gives battle to those who undermine America and American tradition, ideals and institutions. What a difference it makes what motives impel a man to act! The man who gives his all to protect his country against the enemies from without and from within and the man who having arrived in the White House conspires with aliens and foreigners to despoil his own people not only of their wealth and hand it over to alien usurers, but also destroys the government of free men and free institutions by methods of patronage so common to tyrants who buy the support of the mercenaries of all times and climes.

This should suffice and explain the great difference between Burton K. Wheeler, the man of pure English ancestry and blood and the President of the U. S. A. Franklin Delano Roosevelt. Wheeler wants to continue making America great as the humanitarian example of what a Christian nation can do when promoting the spirit of equity and liberty, Roosevelt gives us the example of the depth to which a people can sink when they use artifice and indirectness, bribery and fear mongering to drive 130 million souls into bondage to alien usurers by way of promoting, spreading and fighting a world war under pretext of "democracy" everywhere in the world.

Major Macauley at Ford Bowl

The San Diego Union gave an exceptionally good and extensive report on the 5000 attendance and the conduct of the crowd which was with Wheeler with a very few exceptions. And one of the exceptions was Maj. Theo C. Macauley, secretary-manager of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce.

I made a survey of the audience as it was filling the bowl and looked for faces of trouble makers, since I know most of the war mongers and Communists by sight. That's where trouble was to be expected. In the top row, in the end seat of the last aisle, in the south west corner of the bowl, whom did I discover, but the Hon. Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. When he looked up at me I nodded my head in greeting, but since the war has been going on Macauley has been "off me" like so many of the other war mongers in San Diego who were good friends of mine while the CIO and AFL was driving them to the wall and I was the only outspoken opponent of the racket in the publishing game. Another man passed by, taking a seat further down and he, too, was quite surprised to see Macauley there and asked him about it. "This is the first Nazi meeting I am attending", replied Macauley. Enuf said!

I sat on the platform at the press table during Wheeler's address and the first disturbance originated right out of the south west corner of the bowl. When I called attention of some of the newspaper boys to Macauley and what he had said, one added: "That's nothing.—Maj. Edgar N. Gott, Vice-Pres. of the Consolidated Aircraft, called up Civic Center asking what would make a bigger splash a tomato or an egg?"

The Little Flower of San Diego

Paying his respects to the four councilmen who had voted to permit the use of the Ford Bowl for America First meetings, Judge Edward J. Kelly also mentioned the 2 who voted to prevent Wheeler from speaking there: "There is Al Flowers, the little flower of San Diego. I don't know where he was born. Then there was Mr. Simpson—I don't know his first name—born, God help us, in Ireland."

Al Flowers was born in Canada.

Dear Brother:

I assume that you have read Lindbergh's recent address. What is your reaction?

The Officers and Trustees of your Lodge are very much concerned with the general situation as it presently affects the Jew in America.

We are, therefore, convening a closed meeting of New York Lodge so that we may exchange opinions not only on the program of the Lodge but more importantly on the problems caused by recent national and international events.

You are not urged to attend -- you are expected to attend -- even if it means cancelling another engagement. These are important days.

The Place: Riverside Plaza Hotel

One Hundred Years in Nineteen-Forty-three

No Dirt On Armistead B. Carter

An investigator was sent out from a national chain of newspapers with instructions to contact me and get the lowdown on Armistead Carter. He wanted to know whether Carter was an underworld boss in San Diego. By the time I answered all his questions he was convinced that he could not possibly use the information to smear Carter. Here is the sum and substance of my report, which, of course, can be used by anybody.

Armistead Carter and myself are generally in opposite political camps. He was for the Civic Affairs Committee administration in the city when I worked for a change and signed the complaint against the chief of police at that time which precipitated an investigation that resulted in the election of a new set of councilmen. At that time, for political reasons, I caused a cartoon to be drawn placing all those who favored the retention of the old administration in the same bed together. This bedfellow cartoon, of course, showed also those members of the underworld who favored the administration. But Carter, aside from being on the campaign committee, never received any private benefits from the campaign contributions.

At present Carter is for aid for Britain. I am opposed to giving a single dollar out of public funds, or sacrificing the life of a single American boy for the perpetuation of the British and the Soviet empires. If they, with their joint populations of more than a billion people, cannot defend themselves against Hitler's 80 million people, then there must be something so rotten in the way they run the affairs of their own subjects, that they don't deserve to be defended.

But aside from our differences on political issues, Carter belongs to the conservative wing of the Democratic party and as a member of the State Board of Education is doing yeoman work protecting the people against the Silver-Burdett school book graft.

Personally I could not find a thing against the integrity of Carter as a private citizen and a businessman.

British Democracy

It is needless for me to discuss brutality in warfare when we read in our early history school books in which we were told how the British paid the Indians one pound for every American scalp; this part of our history books has been deleted by British influences. Of course, this method of warfare must be classed with Mr. Churchill's idea of democracy—he, who poisoned the waterwells during the Boer War aggression."—C. Davies Motors Celebrate Grand Opening

For the second time in a 33-year history of motor car sales, Davies Motors, Inc., has celebrated a grand opening Wednesday and Thursday. Two nights of fun and gayety were enjoyed by the citizens of San Diego said E. G. Davies, president of the firm.

"For the last several years, the automobile manufacturers have made no secret of the new models," said Davies. "So we put the old-time glamor back into the business with the introduction of the 1942 Nash by having a two-day celebration.

"The 1942 Nash is called 'the million dollar beauty'. This is certainly putting it mildly.

"We have not only a completely new line of cars to show to San Diegans, but our large plant at 1437 Broadway, has been completly modernized, offering a setting that is unrivaled in all southern California. Modernization was started nearly eight weeks ago and construction work has gone on continuously ever since. Much thought & care has been given in streamlinnig the big showrooms and service departments and the exterior has been completely redone.

Feature Photo Contest

"At the gala opening, we have shown our newly remodeled building with music, souvenirs and refreshments. Thursday night was featured by a style show. CIO Called In to Force Raise in Dry Cleaners Prices

The Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, CIO, are attempting to force the closed shop upon the Dyers and Cleaners of San Diego. Last week they had called out some of the workers in the various plants and placed pickets in front of the Lewis Bros. plant at 3686 El Cajon Blvd. and at 3424 El Cajon Blvd. where the Royal Cleaners & Dyers are located. They withdrew the pickets as soon as the owners of the two plants signified their willingness to negotiate.

Picketing continues at the Stivers Cleaners & Dyers, 3525 University ave., The Healey Wholesale Cleaners & Dyers at 470 Nineteenth St. and the Ballon Cleaners & Laundry at 101 Sixteenth St.

There is no dispute over hours and wages. The issue is the closed shop. The owners of these cleaning establishments are thinking it over twice before they will turn over their plants to be run by and for the CIO.

In San Diego the CIO lost out in its attempt to force a closed shop upon the laundries because the laundry operators stuck up for each other and the CIO could not break this united front. If the Dyers and Cleaners follow the example of the Laundry Association, they, too, will be able to beat back this attempt of the labor racketeers at taking over their plants.

REAL Issue at Stake, Raise in Prices

It appears that the CIO organization activities are not bonafide, but are the result of a feud over prices among the dry cleaners themselves. Lewis and Royal cleaners have been objecting to the cut rate, of three garments for one dolllar; since they could not get a raise of prices through voluntary action within the association itself, they seem to have gone outside to bring in the labor racketeers on condition that through the organization of a closed shop prices would be raised. They did not seem worried when they were picketed, since it was all a fake anyway, and the pickets were withdrawn immediately as they showed their willingness to negotiate towards a closed shop.

Japan's War Trade

When asked why the embargo on Japan had not been enforced long ago, President Roosevelt replied that for two years he had "preserved peace in the Pacific" by appeasing Japan, permitting generous shipments of oil, scrap iron and other war materials.

This statement had a bad effect in China. One of the leading newspaper organs of the Nationalist regime declared Mr. Roosevelt's statement meant that F. D.'s real object was not to aid either China or Japan, but to keep the two fighting so British-American and Dutch interests in the Far East might be comparatively secure.—Labor, 8-5-1941.

Paytrioteers

During the past year there has been considerable dissention over the nation about a little group of persons who have refused to salute the flag, under the claim of religious objections. There have been several mobs formed by professional paytrioteers for the mobbing of these people.

These same paytrioteers are curiously indifferent when shown the Union Now desecration of that same flag. They are greatly perturbed about the 85 to 90% of our people who are not in accord with their views and who are opposed to having our country again embroiled in Europe's endless wars.

The Union Now traitors can get any hall in the nation apparently in which to promote their international treason, but when Lindbergh, who first brought German rearmament to the attention of the British government and our own, wants to speak for the maintenance of our American liberties then he must speak in the open.

Why is it these paytrioteers are so partial to people who wish to make this great nation a part of the British Empire and call those who oppose them Nazis? We assuredly cannot give such people credit for being loyally American.

Constitutional Test Case of Conscription

Editor, The Brom:

My husband, as you probably have read in the daily papers, has been arrested by the F. B. I. and is now in the Milwaukee County Jail in default of raising $5,000 bail.

He is charged with advising against compliance with the Selective Service (Draft) Law, which he claims to be unconstitutional.

For over 20 years, Ernst Goerner has unselfishly, without remuneration or profit to himself, spent his meagre income and all of his time in championing the constitutional rights of American citizens and has fought the International Bankers and War Mongers, who have tried to undermine our nation and involve it in foreign wars. Like millions of our fellow citizens my husband believes that our country should not become involved as a belligerent in the present European conflict and believes that the Selective Service Act is—besides being unconstitutional—a step in that direction. In consequence he now finds himself completely without funds to raise bail or to provide for legal counsel in defending the charges against him.

These charges involve the vital and fundamental rights of all of us, as American citizens, to speak our minds and voice our opinions. It is vital to you, that this case should be tried as a test of our rights as free Americans to speak our opinions. Failure to make a proper defense will probably result in his conviction and a throttling of free speech in these United States.

This case is the first of its kind and has attracted nation-wide attention. It is imperative that Ernst Goerner shall have the opportunity to make proper defense.

I therefore solicit you, as a good American citizen, to make such contribution as you can to the "Ernst Goerner Defense Fund". Since immediate action is necessary, I respectully solicit your contribution at once to me.

KATHERINE B. GOERNER.

False Armistice Report Rocks City

LONDON,—A short-lived false armistice report sent a wave of wild gayety through Liege, according to a Vichy message to Reuters news agency, quoting the Brussels correspondent of the newspaper Petit Parisien.

When the false report that an armistice had been signed spread, the people of Liege flocked into the streets, dancing and singing, the correspondent said. The town's entire supply of beer and wine was consumed.

Crowds tore down "black out" curtains, believing they would no longer be needed. Even the police appeared to believe the report whose origin could not be tracked down.

They love you all,
If you help them along.

They love you all,
Just give the best you have.
Echo returns

We must endure,
And not search for reward.
Resist all lure
And selfish pride discard.

For He is all
We're only part of Him,
And to His call
We should bend every whim.

"Table Manners"

Some people we meet put so much stress on what they call "table manners". They object to and criticize one's "improper" use of knife or fork, or leaving a tea-spoon in a cup while drinking etc, etc.

It has occured to us in our observations that such people are a rather shallow mentality and do lack spirituality, and are the very one's who by outer polish and ceremony try to conceal, consciously or subconsciously, an inborn lack of natural refinement.

Indeed wonderful table manners are found among the demi-mandaines!

Many a well intended wife has wrecked the hapiness of a home by constant harping on friend huband's table manners.

When a man, after a day's work, comes home and sits down for dinner, then friend wife begins to nagg: "John, don't eat with your knife; John you are not using your napkin right, etc. etc. etc—and so the average John or Will gets so disgusted, that he cannot enjoy his meal at all, and by all possibility goes and looks for a more congenial meal companion (and finds her too), and then we hear about the poor neglected and misunderstood wife. Therein lies much of the trouble in the world today.

Unless our folks learn to put spiritual values above material values, there will be little peace and harmony either in homes or nations. —Frater A.

SOLDIER BOY THINK

Did you see that soldierboy?
Once his mother's pride and joy,
Now a cripple maimed for life
And a burden to his wife.

Do you see that kid in arms,
Smiling sweetly without harms?
He will soon be shipped across
To receive his deadly dose.

If he ever should return
Without hands his bread to earn,
What will life mean to such a man,
Will he not blow out his brain?

Free Speech ? ?

INDIANOPOLIS,— George F. Barrett, Illinois attorney-general, resigned from the national association of attorneys-general. He charged that he had been barred from broadcasting nationally a speech which he said was an indictment of Naziism, Fascism, Communism and New Dealism.

The speech was to have been delivered at the meeting of the association, in conjunction with the convention of the American Bar association.

Barret, a Republican, charged that Earl Warren, California attorney-general and president of the national association, had notified him that he could make the address this afternoon only behind closed doors.

ON THE TAXPAYER

The mayor of a big city was taking a distinguished visitor for a tour in a municipal car.

They stopped at a traffic jam and a youngster selling papers hopped on the running board.

"Dandy car you've got, mister." he said.

"It isn't mine," the mayor said. "It belongs to the people of the city. I'm the mayor and this gentleman is the lieutenant governor here on a visit."

The youngster wasn't impressed. "Just what I thought," he said. "A couple of big guys riding around at the expense of us taxpayers."

FDR Rendezvous Known to Nazis

BABYLON, N. Y.,—Mrs. Samuel J. Wagstaff said that while she was in Labrador she heard the German radio announce that a battleship bearing President Roosevelt was entering Argentina Bay, Nfd., for the historic meeting with Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

As a result of her story, Dr. George S. King of Bay Shore, wrote a letter to Sec. of Navy Frank Knox expressing amazement that Germany had known the place of the meeting before it happened and yet the fact had been kept from the American public.

"I think this leak should be investigated most thoroughly by our secret service," Dr. King wrote.

Mrs. Wagstaff said she was visiting her son, George, who was in a hospital at Cartwright, Labrador, with appendicitis. Residents of Newfoundland, she said, all seemed to know that the statesmen had met in Argentina bay. Planes had been over the bay and had verified the meeting, she added.

"I was amazed," Mrs. Wagstaff said, "when I got home 10 days ago and found no one knew about it."

"I believe," said the cheery philosopher, "that for every single thing you give away, two will come back to you."

"Yes, that's true," said the listener. "Last fall I gave away my daughter, and now she and her husband have both come back."

democracy

By Charles H. Ingersoll
(Of Dollar Watch Fame)

Tammany and Wall Street during 50 years maintained a 5c fare for an aggregation of 8,000,000 people. But the Goo-Goos among them, howling for good government and against corruption, found a smart front, who now is as well entrenched as Tammany, although not so strong in petty graft. LaGuardia also belongs to the rabble-rousing crowd that prates of economic royalists in all but the label.

Ingersoll

So now with Tammany corruption, with Goo-goo Reform, with Wall Street reputation, and with the Brain Trust Communism centering here, we are ready for a 10c fare conspiracy between Reform Politics and Union-Communism; and against the consuming masses of the metropolis. The idea will be for labor to help itself at the $3,000,000,000 transit trough at which Fusion feeds—the people's dimes will pay for all.

Rev. J. L. Toner, of The Catholic University of Washington, is the latest proselyte of Mgr. J. A. Ryan, head of that institution, and appeaser of Communism by dallying with various forms of Unionism.

The Rev. Toner is telling us through the tabloids how he has rediscovered the closed shop. This recalls the elaborate report of two years ago by the sixteen Catholic Bishops who had searched the path of 'labor' for hundreds of years, and rediscovered the Medieval Craft System!

The idea that the familiar 'problem of labor' may be solved by closing shops to labor, except such as pay dues to labor racketeers, seems to intrigue all the votaries of the church most persistently. Yet this fealty to labor-aristocracy and monopoly has not gone so far as to cause the church to cease prosecuting and persecuting Communists the sponsors of Unionism.

The Church, the Unions, and Communism, as enemies of Capital and Wealth, and protectors of basic monopoly, are a fine combination.

"Basic Science Law" in New Mexico

C. Leon de Aryan, The Broom, P.O. Box 349,
East San Diego, California.

Dear Sir:-

Your publication has Naturopathy at heart and is advocating medical freedom. Our cause in this State should therefore be your cause and the cause of your paper.

A basic science law (House Bill 123, approved by the Legislature of New Mexico, April 18, 1941, Chapter 189 Sessions Laws of New Mexico 1941) was passed in this state, which law, in the writer's opinion, prohibits the granting of a license to those engaged in the practice of Naturopathy.

Our problem at this time is legal defense.

We are assured that the recently passed "basic science law" can be erased from the books, as in the case of the Arizona basic science law of several years ago. We are further assured that we will be victorious because of the fact that the New Mexico State Naturopathic Association is incorporated in the State of New Mexico, and which incorporation we believe to be contract with the state to give the members of the ANA of New Mexico the right to practice their profession, and to protect the practice of Naturopathic Physicians.

We must continue to fight.

We must have attornies who are not prejudiced. We believe we have been successful in this respect and we appeal to the competent N. D.'s for their support. We want to secure membership of competent graduate Naturopathic Physicians from recognized Naturopathic schools and colleges.

You may rest assured that all moneys raised from membership dues, donations, etc. will be conscientiously accounted for and full reports will be published in recognized Naturopathic publicatoins.

Your supporting contribution should be forwarded to Dr. L. E. Polhemus, 218 Shelby St., Sante Fe, New Mexico (Sec'y. and Treas.)

Reply should be made to Dr. S. Fhuere, N. D. Box 245 Socorro, New Mexico, Pres. New Mexico State Naturopathic Association.

Respectfully yours,
S. FHUERE, N. D.

HEALTH-GERMS

By George Starr White, M. D.

HEALTH MEANS HEALTHY CELLS

Of all the thousands of books on health, hardly any two agree on the cause of un-health, any more than they agree on the cure of un-health.

Dr. Geo. Starr White

To believe that all un-health is caused by this or that "germ" is a great hindrance to the advancement of Natural Healing.

The fact that no "germ", said to be the cause of this or that un-health, is ever found until the named un-health is well advanced, should be evidence enuf that the particular micro-organism—"germ"—settled in the particular location, because that location was suited to it, rather than that the "germ" made the location suitable.

It is on the same order as the mosquitoes and the stagnant water—the mosquitoes seek the stagnant water as their natural breeding-place; but do not make the water stagnant.

To rid a place of mosquitoes, we drain the swamps, and drain off the stagnant water and put kerosense about, so the mosquitoes will have no place to breed and multiply.

To prevent un-health, the body must be kept in such condition, thru natural living, that any "disease germ" will find no place to live.

To successfully remedy any un-health, we must remedy each cell individually. There is no such thing as "mass-treatment" in Nature—each individual cell must be treated as an entity or unit.

As each cell is made healthy, it acts on the cell next to it, until the millions upon millions of cells in a body have been acted upon. Nature does this with a rapidity that humans cannot calculate or realize.

URIC ACID

As a Factor in the Causation of Disease
By KATHERINE LARSON

The chief point that we have to notice with regard to the physical condition of uric acid itself is its insolubility. It differs very greatly from urea in the fact that it is only soluble to a very small extent in water and that this solubility is therefore affected to an important extent by quite a large number of substances which form insoluble compounds with it.

The blood which is circulating in the human body is, in certain conditions, a good solvent of uric acid and will hold a moderate quantity of it in solution. In other conditions it is an extremely bad solvent of uric acid and will hold but little in solution. Though practically speaking the blood of the body is always alkaline and alkalies as we know are solvents of uric acid. So that the blood in the human body is always to some small extent able to dissolve uric acid and uric acid is always present in the blood. But the amount of uric acid present is increased by the administration of solvents and is diminished by the administration of substances which either diminish the alkalinity of the blood or add to the blood a substance which directly forms an insoluble compound with uric acid.

As uric acid does not dissolve readily in water it follows that water drinking in large quantities, as so often recommended by ignorant people does not eliminate uric acid from the system or flush the kidneys. Quite the contrary is the case. People whose system is "acid" — i. e. has too much uric acid in it, either in solution or retention in joints and tissues, as in arthritis and gout, have also weak kidneys, clogged up with this same uric acid. These weak kidneys cannot pass out of the system the excess water, but water is retained in the blood and so it raises the blood pressure and affects the heart. Water drinking in large amounts is a great mistake and should be avoided. Only by chemically alkalizing the blood stream can uric acid be neutralized and carried out through the kidneys. To alkalize the blood we do not have to go to a drug store for an "alkalizer" but instead go to a fruit market where the best alkalizers are found especially in citrus fruits and alkaline vegetables.

About the diet—more in our next articles.

Good THOUGHT
Good WORD — Good DEED

OUR OWN SHALL COME TO US

By Dr. O. Z. Ha'nish

Had we watched Nature daily in its processes of unfoldment and growth; had we paid attention to the barren trees of early springtime, and noted the gradual change from bud to leaf, and the uncurling of leaves with their fresh and waxen colorings, we should have learned one of the grandest lessons in Life; we would have learned ere this that everything manifests according to time and season.

Instead of lamenting over the past and its shortcomings, we would gladly look into the day of our timely season, and watch what there may be in store for us; we would hopefully look Nature in the face and and receive what is coming to us with thanksgiving in our heart, recognizing the law that our own shall come to us—whether it be for good or whether it be to our sorrow; for, after all, the dual principle of Life must be exercised that thereby we may learn of the complexity of Intelligence and the variety in the operations of Nature. Were it not so; were it not for the continuous change and interchange— the ups and downs, the rise and fall—Life would become rather monotonous and dreary and our possibilities very limited.

But now that we view Nature in its entirety and from every possible standpoint, we no longer see in the lower strata of Life shortcomings, but rather the stepping-stones toward higher conceptions. We can clearly see and recognize in the lower manifestations possibilities of a higher development and unfoldment.

As the tree—once apparently lifeless and barren—now enveloped in a garment of perfect green—breathing in its bloom the Life to be—enjoying a state of resurrection, so may we, heeding the call of the day, and following the still, small voice that bids us come and partake of the spirit of Life, of bud and blossom, life unto the flowers in the valleys of Euphrates, and of sprouts like the young cedars upon the mountains—like unto the scapus tree that dips its branches into the floods of water torrents or bounding rivers by night, rising to its full height at early morn, expanding its twigs and twiglets, inviting the birds of heaven to a refreshing retreat and rest; so we take our fill thru turbulent waves of Life's ocean, simply to rise again with renewed fervor and heightened enthusiasm, looking forward into the day—the most glorious day of sunshine.

Could we but read the language of Nature with our sense ever on the elert, a mind attentive, a soul calm and a spirit serene, what beautiful lessons we would learn, instead of passing thru the labyrinth of experiences that offer us nothing but the cold walls of winding passages, speaking in a doleful language of past antiquity, and the sounding of echoes repeating the self-same story of thoughtless deeds.

Directing our thought toward the beautiful and sublime in Nature; reasoning and discriminating pro and con; deducting by virtue of comparative logic morals conducive to the welfare of our own being, the useless particles of ancestral ties and inheritance would soon fade away like the stars in the morning, leaving us in full view of the sun-clothed day, to apply our talents to the demands of the hour, ever and anon keeping before our mind the words of the poet:

I am, O God, and surely Thou must be,
Thou art; directing, guiding all Thou art;
Direct my understanding, then, to Thee;
Control my spirit, guide my wand'ring heart.
Tho but an atom midst immensity,
Still I am something fashioned by Thy hand.

I hold a middle rank 'twixt Heav'n and Earth,
On the last verge of mortal being stand,
Close to the realm where angels have their birth,
Just on the boundaries of the spirit land.
The chain of being is complete in me;
In me is Matter's last gradation lost,
And the next step is spirit—Deity.

I can comand the lightning and am dust;
A monarch and a slave, a worm, a God.
Whence came I here and how? So marvelously
Constructed and conceived, unknown, this clod
Lives surely thru some higher energy;
For from itself alone it could not be.

Creator, yes, Thy wisdom and Thy word
Created me, Thou source of life and good;
Thou spirit of my spirit, and my Lord!
Thy light, Thy love, in their bright plenitude
Filled me with an immortal soul, to spring
O'er the abyss of death, and bade it wear
The garments of eternal day and wing
Its heavenly flight beyond this little sphere,
Ev'n to its Source—to Thee—its Author there.

California Supreme Court Upholds Police Women

(Over KGB, Wednesday Night 8:45)

You remember the case of the two police women who were fired by the city council and Mayor Benbough right after election, two years ago. It was the dirtiest deal which they could have given those two police women. I had helped elect that council and Mayor Benbough and for a while my paper was the only one that gave publicity to Benbough's side at a time when he was alone on the old Civic Affairs Council and the daily papers were playing politics against Benbough. But when the new bunch, right after election, gave the two police women that dirty deal I took the women's side just as strongly and effectively as I had previously worked to get the then Chief of Police George Sears out of office. The dirty and despicable part of the mayor and his council's action was that they took out their spite against Sears on two police women who had simply obeyed orders when they policed the dine and dance halls of San Diego. To discriminate against these two ladies to spite Sears showed to what dirty tricks the new council and mayor was willing to stoop. There was nothing in the record of the police women which could be held against them. They were efficient, conscientious and good police officers, so what did the council and mayor do but cut off their salaries by pretending that their position was legally abolished. The police women went to court and won a decision by Superior Court Judge Robert B. Burch. The city appealed the case and the Appellate Court upheld the police women and Judge Burch. The city appealed again and the Sureme Court not only upheld the police women and Judge Burch but definitely showed up the city hall politicians for the cheap and lousy specimens they were when they let their political squabbles with the former police chief becloud their sense of duty to take out their spite on perfectly splendid police officers. The ladies are to be congratulated. The city attorney's office should be reprimanded by the city council for having given such rotten advice to unnecessarily spend tax money in a useless litigation, merely to spite George Sears. They claimed that they abolished the jobs for economy's sake. It's a nice kind of economy when they have to pay court costs on both sides and pay the back salary of the police women besides.

Notices Defective Says Calif. Supreme Court

The court in its decision observed:

"It was shown by evidence bearing on the issue of good faith that there was a controversy over desirability of taking plaintiffs off the detail of supervision of dine and dance establishments of the city and therefore the cause of dismissal set forth in the notices may have been a mere subterfuge cloaking an attempt to remove plaintiffs for entirely different reasons." The court held the notices defective.

Who Are the Communists ?

History teaches us that after the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans, who put down the armed revolt with a strong hand, its people were dispersed to all the four corners of the earth and did not have a homeland of their own since. A large band migrated north into Mongolia and into the lower Volga provinces, today known as Georgia, or the Caucasian country between the Black and the Caspian seas. There they intermarried with the natives who are known as Kalmucks and spread their religion and the hatred their forebears had against Jesus Christ, when they insisted that He be crucified, survived in the offspring, for under Stalin and Lenin's regime over 25 million Chritians were murdered in Soviet Russia. And now the United States is to fight for the protection of this atheistic regime of Caucasian bandits and cut-throats. Did you know that those mountain Kalmucks are nothing but a bunch of bandits who hate the rich and the well-to-do? Did you know that both Stalin and his brother-in-law Kaganowitch had been arrested before the Soviet regime was in power for plain highway robbery, as common bandits in Tiflis territory. Now you will understand the psychology of Communism and its hatred of the rich and of the hardworking people in town and on farms. The bandit's outlook upon life is that everybody who produces something of value is fair prey to be pounced upon and robbed, eventually killed if he resists. That is the philosophy of Communism. That is why they sabotage industry and brought this attitude into the labor unions, preached class hatred and destruction of property. They are a treacherous bunch. They make pledges merely to break them, just as Moses came down with the Ten Comandments and broke them all, when he decided to murder three thousand of his own people who were ignorant enough to return to the idolatry of their fathers.
